

public schools:
a great return
on your investment.

www.omnea.org

America's greatest success story is public education, the nation's greatest equalizer, providing hope and opportunity to more than 50 million American students regardless of their abilities or zip codes, from the desperately poor to the affluent.

Our public schools successfully educate the most diverse population in the world. The miracle of public education is that every child gets a chance.

