

Virtual competition norms 2022

As the national and Missouri conferences move virtual this year, some additional guidelines are needed for our virtual competitions to make sure all competitors have the best possible opportunity and experience. Be sure to review these and the posted guidelines as you prepare for your competition. All students entering a competition must be a paid Active Member of national Educators Rising - $10 at www.educatorsrising.org.

General protocols for all competitions

- Use virtual background or have a plain wall behind you that is not able to allow passage behind
- Make sure your pets are contained
- Keep doors closed when possible
- Mute on entry and turn video on when entering competition to present
- Dress as if this is a live competition. (Not just waist up) Review the competition dress code section of the competition guidelines.
- For pre-recorded video of presentation to judges:
 - Make sure camera angle is focused on your head and shoulders
 - Make eye contact with camera
- All pre-recorded presentations to be uploaded with competition application.

The following competitions require a pre-recorded presentation to be submitted by Feb. 22. See individual competition requirements for other materials that must be submitted, all by Feb. 22. Recording and materials will be pre-scored prior to the conference. Only the live Q&A with judges will take place during the conference. Missouri conference is March 8 and 9. Find competition requirements and scoring guides at www.educatorsrising.org, in student resources.
